MEMBERS OF THE CONSORT

CLAUDE ENGLI is a member of the Faculty of Music at the University of Toronto, University of Western Ontario and Queen's University.

He is principal tubist and soloist with Orchestra London Canada. He has performed with the Toronto Symphony, the National Ballet of Canada and the Atlantic Symphony Orchestra.

As an enthusiastic proponent of contemporary music J. SCOTT IRVINE has premiered numerous pieces written for him by Canadian composers. He also received a commission from the Canada Council to write a work for concert band.

He has performed with the Toronto Symphony, the National Ballet of Canada and the Henny Youngman Orchestra. He is much in demand as a studio musician and has recorded movie scores and commercials for radio and television.

HERBERT POOLE is presently bass trombonist with Orchestra London Canada. He was formerly with the Atlantic Symphony Orchestra and has toured extensively with the National Ballet of Canada throughout Canada and the United States. During the summer he performs with the Charlottetown Festival Orchestra.

As a free-lance musician he has performed with the Toronto Symphony and the Canadian Opera Company Orchestra.

DOUGLAS PURVIS is the principal tubist with the National Ballet of Canada and the Canadian Opera Company Orchestra.

He performs regularly with the Toronto Brass Society and has performed with the Toronto Symphony.
